

SOLICITATION AND PETITION POLICY

Public Library facilities may not be used in any manner for advertising or otherwise promoting the interests of commercial, political, or any other non-library agency, individual, or organization. Other than library books or supplies, no requests for money or offers to buy or sell anything on Library property is permitted.

There is to be absolutely no petitioning on Library property. Distribution of materials in the Library, and materials distributed as part of an approved library program, must conform to the Bulletin Board and Display Policy of the Jericho Public Library. Such materials require prior approval.
